Distinguishing Between Poverty Experienced by Families and Child Neglect

VIRTUAL

Rule 48

Date: Wednesday, April 2, 2025

Time: 9:00 am – 12:00 pm (3 Credit Hours)

Place: Lucas County Conference and Learning Center, 301 Adams St. Cost: Free

Instructor: Christine Kelly Cross

To sign up: Email Megan Hite at megan.hite@jfs.ohio.gov

Description: It is important that resource families understand that poverty and neglect do not always go hand in hand. In this class, you will learn to not only distinguish between the two but also understand why poor children are more likely to come to the attention of the child protection system. You will learn how structural racism factors in the disproportion of children of color in foster homes, how poverty can be a risk factor of neglect but not a prerequisite, and how bias and stereotypes can impact a caregiver's ability to work with a child and their family experiencing poverty. Most importantly, you will learn strategies that will help you work collaboratively with families from a socioeconomic status that differs from your own.

De-Escalation Skills for the Human Services: Enhancing Safety through Verbal and Nonverbal InterventionIN-PERSONRule 48*Date: Monday, May 19, 2025Time: 9:00 am – 4:00 pm (6 Credit Hours)Place: Lucas County Conference and Learning Center, 301 Adams St.Cost: FreeInstructor: Darla BolonTo sign up: Email Megan Hite at megan.hite@jfs.ohio.gov

Description: This training is designed to give caseworkers and others the skills and practice necessary to de-escalate angry and aggressive people. These skills are designed to enhance worker safety and improve communication with others. The training will address strategies for conflict resolution and workplace violence. According to the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, “Workplace violence is any act or threat of physical violence, harassment, intimidation, or other threatening disruptive behavior that occurs at the work site. It ranges from threats and verbal abuse to physical assaults and even homicide.” Direct service workers are faced with many volatile situations where verbal violence, harassment and intimidation are not uncommon. Because of this, it's essential that workers, who must also display patience, empathy, compassion, and a genuine desire to help people in crisis, learn and skills to help clients regulate their emotional intensity in the moment. Understanding and identifying the stages of escalation and aggression can help employees respond more effectively. Ultimately, learning to regain control of the situation before it becomes violent benefits everyone involved. Whether the escalated individual is angry, suicidal, dealing with a mental health crisis or under the influence of substances, the implementation of de-escalation strategies are effective in helping the parties communicate more efficiently and avoid harm.

These conversations are essential to affect change, but they are also hard and uncomfortable. Microaggressions can be defined as thinly veiled, everyday instances of racism, homophobia, sexism (and more) that one experiences or witnesses in the workplace or toward a client. Sometimes it is an insult, other times it is an errant comment or gesture. Whether intentional or unintentional, microaggression communicates hostile, derogatory or negative viewpoints to others. Workshop goals are to create awareness of and provide ways of confronting these harmful comments and actions.Coffee with CASA: Navigating IEPs & Education Services*IN-PERSONRule 48*Date: Thursday, June 12, 2025Time: 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm (2 Credit Hours)Place: Via ZoomCost: FreeTo Sign-Up: E-mail Aislynn Ward award@co.lucas.oh.us or call 419-213-6985Instructor: Brianna Stephen, J.D.Description: Join us for an opportunity to connect with fellow CASA Volunteers and enhance your understanding of navigating Individualized Education Plans (IEPs) and education services. They will walk away with a toolbox full of strategies designed specifically to prevent compassion fatigue — no matter your setting or specialty — and confidently know how to manage emotions, reduce anxiety, and stop feeling overwhelmed; maintain focus, fulfillment, and thrive; successfully navigate the road between caring too much and being too burnt out to care; prioritize your own health and initiate change; and, successfully transition from work to home life.

Ohio CASA- Diversity Training

Rule 48

Date: Available anytime online

Time: 1 Credit Hours, CLE & CPE

Place: Webinar

Cost: Free

Instructor: Carin Burr, MS, LPC, LICDC-CS – Full Time Professor at Clark State College in the Social Services Department of the Health, Human, and Public Services Division. Bachelor's degree in Developmental Psychology and a master's degree in Mental Health Counseling.

To sign up: <https://www.ohiocasa.org/available-courses/>

Description: This course will provide knowledge regarding diversity, equity, and inclusion issues surrounding modules on poverty, ethnicity, gender, corrections, mental health, and additions. You will be encouraged to develop insights and to explore myths and other learned information to better understand the challenges provided by barriers and lack of resources from society to the many diversities in the populations we serve and the intersectionality between these issues. Everyone we work with has a unique combination of characteristics including gender, race, socioeconomic status, ethnicity, culture, religion, etc. that have influenced their experience and thus their perceptions and resources they have available with which to navigate the world. When we listen and develop an understanding of what an individual's perceptions and resources are, we can use a more empathetic approach where we do not just imagine their situation but imagine navigating that situation with their resources and perceptions. To truly imagine their situation, one must first understand their own perceptions and beliefs so that they may begin to remove biases they have learned that create barriers to their own ability to understand and empathize with their client. Biases are not evil things; we have come by many of them through what we have been exposed to. Biases only become issues when we hang on to them in spite of evidence to the contrary or judge from their biases without listening to the individual. What we will be exploring in this training is asking you to consider what information you are using to approach clients and whether that information may be creating barriers to understanding or whether we may be able to incorporate new information to create a broader level of understanding that will help us work in the best interests of those we serve.

Understanding Ohio's Child Protection System

Rule 48

Date: Available anytime online

Time: 1.5 Credit Hours, CLE & CPE

Place: Webinar

Cost: Free

Instructor: Denielle Ell-Rittinger and Renee Lupi

To sign up: <https://www.ohiocasa.org/available-courses/>

Description: This video will walk the participant through a family's journey when the subject of a suspected child abuse, neglect, or dependency report to an Ohio Public Children Services Agency (PCSA). Although there may be some variation in application among counties, all Ohio PCSA caseworkers utilize the same tools and processes for decision-making. The presenters will examine each of those tools, their purposes, the factors a caseworker must take into consideration, and how assessments guide decision-making. Understanding these processes can help the CASA volunteer and attorney guardian ad litem identify and collaboratively secure appropriate services and protections for the child they represent.

Part 1 begins with a look at the first two stages of intervention in Ohio's child welfare system, Intake and Assessment. As the family and caseworker move from the screening of a report to case decision, the video will examine the various decision points and assessments that are conducted to inform the caseworker's decision, as well as the pieces that the caseworker must put in place to protect and guide the child to permanency. This includes a high-level understanding of risk, safety and family assessments, case decisions, and placement options.

Part 2 looks at the third stage of Ohio's child welfare system, case management. This video dissects the elements of a quality case plan and helps the viewer to better understand how the language of the plan affects the family's ability to successfully modify behavior and address the concerns that led to protective intervention. As a CASA volunteer or attorney guardian ad litem you can advocate for families to be engaged in the development of case plans that are written clearly with observable measures and actions that directly link to the identified concerns.

Altering the Path to Delinquent Behaviors: A Guide for GALs

Rule 48

Date: Available anytime online

Time: 1.5 Credit Hours, CLE & CEU

Place: Webinar

Cost: Free

Instructor: Stefanie Lynn Coe, J.D., CASA of Franklin County

To sign up: <https://www.ohiocasa.org/available-courses/>

Description: Have you wondered how it is that so many of the children represented by CASA Volunteers or attorney guardians ad litem as a result of the child's abuse or neglect end up in the juvenile justice system? This course will help the CASA volunteer and attorney guardian ad litem become familiar with risk factors that may contribute to delinquent behavior, the steps that can be taken to help prevent or mitigate delinquent acts, and the types of community supports that may be available to help.

In this course, a highly experienced attorney describes the legal framework of juvenile delinquency and gives insight as to how this may impact the role of a CASA volunteer or attorney guardian ad litem. At conclusion, the participant will better understand the nature of delinquency and its causes and have gained knowledge about the factors that contribute to a child choosing to engage in delinquent behavior.

Understanding Addiction: Squirrel Logic

Rule 48

Date: Available anytime online

Time: 1.5 Credit Hours, CLE & CPE

Place: Webinar

Cost: Free

Instructor: Brad Lander, Ph.D, Clinical Director - Addiction Medicine at The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center

To sign up: <https://www.ohiocasa.org/available-courses/>

Description: Ever asked yourself, "Why don't they just stop?" Using a mood-altering drug over time creates fundamental changes to the brain that lead to compulsive and self-destructive behavior. This presentation will help the viewer understand substance abuse as a chronic brain disease rather than bad behavior and fully conceptualize the impact of alcohol and drug use on the brain and behavior. Dr. Lander explores the physiology of how substance use becomes addiction and what this means in terms of establishing realistic time frames and expectations to support successful recovery based on neurological findings.

Description: This webinar will provide a view, from a child's perspective, of the challenges, vulnerabilities, but most importantly, the resilience inherent within young children. Young children, especially those who've experienced maltreatment and the complexities of foster care, navigate their world with a unique lens, influenced by both trauma and hope. This webinar by Zero to Three highlights the distinction between typical development and the effects of adverse experiences. With a strong emphasis on innovative trauma informed strategies and the importance of cultural humility, this webinar will empower CASA/GAL staff and volunteers in their advocacy roles. Participants will leave the webinar with strategies to support CASA/GAL advocacy for young children and their families.

Description: Over a decade ago, then-legislators Shannon Jones and Charleta Tavares crossed the partisan divide to create landmark legislation to address Ohio's abysmal infant mortality rate. Eight years after Senate Bill 332 passed into law, Ohio continues to rank in the bottom ten states nationally for infant mortality. While policy changes are necessary to address this persistent crisis, it is not sufficient to save the lives of Ohio's vulnerable infants. Join Shannon Jones and Charleta Tavares as they reflect on their work together, starting with their statewide listening tour and culminating in the creation of the Ohio Commission on Infant Mortality and SB 332. The webinar, sponsored by CareSource, will also highlight one community making significant improvement in its infant mortality rate. Hamilton County recently saw a new low in infant mortality numbers and Dr. Meredith Smith and Jill Miller will share insights about the successful strategies spearheaded by Cradle Cincinnati and other community leaders. Thursday's webinar will also feature remarks from Ohio Department of Children & Youth Director Kara B. Wentz as she looks ahead to how the new department will prioritize improved outcomes for moms and babies.

Instructor: Chris Newlin, MS, LPC

To sign up: <https://www.ncacvtc.org/#/catalog>

You will be prompted to sign into your account to register. If you do not have an account you will need to create one to participate in this training option.

Description: Parents and caregivers, when faced with emerging allegations involving the abuse of their child, are suddenly confronted with a situation for which they are poorly prepared. This is not significantly different from other situations involving parents' reactions regarding the well-being of their children. However, the ambiguity of child abuse allegations creates heightened challenges, and this same ambiguity is also a challenge for Multi-Disciplinary Team members involved in the investigation and intervention. This session will identify the difference between belief and ambivalence and how all professionals involved in child abuse cases can assist parents to be supportive and engaged with their children.

Cost: Free

Instructor: Andra Chamberlin

To sign up: <https://www.ncacvtc.org/#/catalog>

You will be prompted to sign into your account to register. If you do not have an account, you will need to create one to participate in this training option.

Description: Participants will learn:

Child sexual abuse involves any sexual activity perpetrated against a minor by threat, force, intimidation, or manipulation and includes both contact and non-contact abuse. The array of sexual activities includes fondling, touching a child sexually, making a child touch a person sexually, intercourse, sexual assault, rape, incest, sodomy, exhibitionism, or involving a child in sexual exploitation or trafficking. This presentation is designed for persons working with children in any capacity – whether as childcare staff, law enforcement or child protective workers new to the field, persons in the ministry, school personnel, youth-serving organization staff, etc. The presentation topics include an introductory examination of sexual abuse dynamics; the disclosure process and what prevents children from disclosing; how trauma affects brain development and results in life-long challenges for children; how offenders groom children, families, and the community; and how to listen to and assist a child who discloses maltreatment.

Finding Their Voice: Reasons Children Delay Disclosure

Rule 48

Date: Available anytime online

Time: 1.75 Credit Hours

Place: Webinar

Cost: Free

Instructor: Andra Chamberlin & Kim Madden

To sign up: <https://www.ncacvtc.org/#/catalog>

You will be prompted to sign into your account to register. If you do not have an account, you will need to create one to participate in this training option.

Description: Despite overwhelming scientific consensus that the majority of child sexual abuse victims either delay or only partially disclose their experiences, expectations of prompt, comprehensive reporting persist. Misperceptions regarding this dynamic can have wide-ranging impacts. Juries may equate a reporting delay with veracity, parents may miss or misread a partial disclosure, and victims may be silenced by watching disbelief of another person's account evolve into disparaging questions of motive. This online webinar will examine the science that informs our understanding of sexual abuse disclosure dynamics across the lifespan. Factors that discourage and enable disclosure will be presented and best practice recommendations for addressing delayed disclosure will be discussed.

Description: Far too many children are exposed to abuse, violence, and crime. A new emphasis on what is being called "poly-victimization" can help professionals identify the most endangered children and youth, provide the most appropriate interventions, and protect them from additional harm. Poly-victimization refers to the experience of multiple victimizations of different kinds (for example, sexual abuse, physical abuse, bullying, witnessing family violence, and exposure to community violence). This webinar provides participants with information on the latest research on the prevalence, characteristics, and effects of poly-victimization on children and adolescents. The importance of assessment and treatment of poly-victimization and its implications for practitioners is addressed.

To sign up: <https://www.ncacvtc.org/#/catalog>

Description: This workshop will introduce common sentinel injuries in child physical abuse and the importance of recognizing these sometimes-subtle findings early. This will review the current literature on sentinel injuries and the increased morbidity and mortality associated with recurrent physical abuse. Finally, this will discuss strategies to improve detection of these injuries and ways to reduce bias in evaluation of suspected physical abuse.

The Juxtaposition of Silence, Sexual Violence and Youth of Color

Rule 48

Date: Available anytime online

Time: 1.5 Credit Hour

Place: Webinar

Cost: Free

Instructor: Tanisha Knighton, PhD

To sign up: <https://www.ncacvtc.org/#/catalog>

Description: The field of sexual violence historically has failed to recognize the impact intersectionality has on experiences and responses to sexual violence. For some, there is limited appreciation for the fact that human trafficking survivors are also survivors of sexual violence. This workshop will address the historical and ongoing failure of the sexual violence intervention movements to meet the needs of Youth Survivors of Color, the social injustice that often results in the sexual abuse to prison pipeline for these youth, and ways to engage in culturally competent interventions to meet the needs of Communities of Color.

The Science and Power of Hope

Date: Available anytime online

Place: Webinar

Instructor: Chan Hellman, PhD with moderator Karen Hangartner

To sign up: <https://www.ncacvtc.org/#/catalog>

Description: Internationally renowned researcher, Dr. Chan Hellman, will share his insight on how the Science and Power of Hope can buffer adversity and stress; provide better psychological, social, and behavioral outcomes for children and adults; and can be increased and sustained by targeted interventions. The development of Hope can be applied individually, organizationally, and in our communities to overcome the impacts of trauma and adversity. Dr. Hellman's presentation provides an opportunity to learn about the core tenets of goals, pathways, and agency (willpower) thinking. Participants leave with practical knowledge to apply in their own lives; and knowledge about how Hope impacts our individual and collective experiences. This presentation will provide individuals and organizations with the foundation for a shared language to use Hope in everyday settings

GAL: Domestic Violence-Informed Practice for GALs

Date: Available anytime online

Place: Webinar

Instructor: David Mandel, Executive Director, Safe and Together Institute

To sign up: <https://sco.csod.com/client/sco/default.aspx>

Description: Research and experience tell us that many, if not most, cases that are referred to guardians ad litem (GAL) contain domestic violence as a significant component in the family dynamics. Domestic violence patterns that impact child and family functioning can be outside the scope of the legal definition of domestic violence (R.C. 2919.25 or 3113.31). Whether domestic violence is the precipitating cause for the referral to a GAL or is part of a family's history, the full range of facts surrounding domestic violence must be considered in making recommendations relative to children's best interests. Interviewing family members, reviewing court documents, and writing reports require knowledge of the non-offending parent's action to protect the children as well as the perpetrator's patterns of behaviors and their impact on child and family functioning to inform appropriate intervention strategies. In this course, GALs will gain critical knowledge and skills to recognize the nuances in domestic violence dynamics and implement practices to foster children's safety and well-being.
