Free Education Records Review – Sign Up Today!

Advocates for Basic Legal Equality (ABLE) is offering families the opportunity to have their students' educational records reviewed by an education advocate. If you are concerned about your child's educational progress, services, or rights, please complete the form below to express your interest.

An education advocate can help identify whether:

- Your student is receiving the appropriate supports
- Additional evaluations or services may be warranted
- Your students' rights under education law are being fully protected

By submitting this registration, you confirm you are aware of the following conditions:

- I understand that only a parent, legal guardian, or eligible student (age 18 or older or enrolled in postsecondary education) as defined by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) may request or consent to the release of a student's education records.
- By submitting this form, I am confirming that I am authorized under FERPA to make a request and to consent to the release of records on behalf of the student named. Providing false information or signing without proper authority may result in the denial of the request.
- Submitting this registration form will not guarantee legal representation or services. ABLE will not attend meetings, file complaints, or represent me in hearings or court unless a separate agreement is signed.
- A records request cannot be made on my behalf until I sign a Limited Services Agreement and Release of Information form authorizing the school district to send my child's records to ABLE.
- If ABLE accepts my registration, a Limited Services Agreement and a Release of Information form will be sent to the email address provided for electronic signature.
